Dear Mr. Brown:

Thank you very much for your letter of February 4, 1989, concerning persons with environmental sensitivities. Please accept my apologies for the delay in replying; however, the volume of correspondence has been such that I am only now able to respond.

At the outset, I wish to thank you for your kind remarks on my re-election and re-appointment as Minister of Transport.

I appreciate being informed of your views on environmental matters. In my capacity as Minister of Transport, I am committed to the provision of a safe, reliable and accessible national transportation system for all Canadians.

Moreover, my department is committed to the removal of barriers to access for persons with disabilities and has actively pursued activities aimed at the removal of those obstacles. Please be assured that this ongoing effort is of paramount importance to Transport Canada.

Thank you, once again, for taking the time to inform me of your views.

With every best wish.

Yours sincerely,

Benoît Bouchard

Dear Mr. Brown:

Thank you very much for your letter of May 1, 1989, received in my office on May 5, which was further to our previous exchange of correspondence, concerning persons with environmental sensitivities. Please accept my apologies for the delay in replying; however, I wanted to ensure that the matter you raised received every consideration.

I appreciate being informed of your outstanding concerns. As per your request, I have asked officials of my Transportation of Disabled Persons Program to contact you, in order to arrange for a meeting with you to discuss your concerns relating to the accessibility of transportation for disabled persons.

I do hope the foregoing will be of assistance and thank you, once again, for writing.

With every best wish.

Yours sincerely,
